George Albert Nokes Says He Kept Notes of Cook's Actions in Month of May

Crawf[illegible] Murder Trial Furnishes New Sensations, but [illegible]sed Apparently Not Yet Implicated by Evidence—[illegible]esses Under Cross-Examination Not Sure as to What [illegible] Said Before—Alleged that Lumber Prices Increased [illegible]r Crawford's Death.

Provincial Library

Geo[illegible]bert Nokes, a witness for the [illegible]ution, was again on the stand [illegible] few minutes in the Crawford case Thursday morning. As in [illegible]nesday's evidence, witness said [illegible]d seen Cook in the vicinity of the farm on June 17. H. H. Robertson pressed witness as to the entries he had made in his little book, as to dates, etc., on which he had seen Cook near the farm, but witness had entered dates and made other entries in the book very carelessly and Mr. Robertson, becoming disgusted with Nokes' evidence, allowed the next witness to be called.

On Wednesday afternoon Nokes stated that on Sunday, May 17, he had seen Cook in his auto going north with two other men he did not know. On Tuesday the 19th he had seen Cook alone in a buggy coming from the direction of his farm and going to town. On June 2, he had seen him going southward toward his farm. About June 7 he had seen Cook stop at the farm one evening about 8 o'clock. Two men were with him. They had stopped a minute and turned back to town.

Angus McQuaker was called Thursday morning. On May 17 at 3 p.m. he had seen a buggy on Cook's farm between the house and the well. However, under cross-examination by A. G. MacKay, witness said he afterward thought what he had taken to be a buggy was the manure pile over the well. On May 21 he had seen the well covered over and had reported to Mr. Henry. On the 20th of June he had pumped the well out.

In the house on the farm, and near the well, witness had entered on June 20, and in the attic had found a hay fork. This was produced in court and witness identified it as being the same fork. It had been taken to Mr. Foss, justice of the peace in town. Witness had bought lumber from Cook on several occasions and stated he himself had noticed no difference in prices. His bills had been about the same, he said.

Under cross-examination witness said he had told two people that since Crawford had gone into the lumber business prices had droped $10 and after Crawford had disappeared had gone up $10.

"Why were you busy circulating this story?" asked Mr. MacKay.

"I wasn't busy circulating this story."

Witness told that a Mr. MacKay had bought lumber from Cook in May, and a Mr. Kenny had bought some afterwards, and it was then he noticed the raise in prices.

The door of the house at the farm had been open when entered, and found the fork and the window was broken. A policemen had asked him to see if there was anything in the attic.

George Roshell was then called. He was an employee of the Imperial Lumber company. Cook had come to his house and asked if he had missed the fork from the lumber yard. It was unusual for Cook to call at witness's house. Witness said Cook had looked worried when he called. He had been sick two weeks previous and for three days following the murder Cook had been sick and had remained in his room upstairs over the office. Witness had not seen the fork in the yard on the 12th or 14th of May. Others had often borrowed this fork, sometimes for a few hours or even for a day. "He asked me if I had missed the fork and I said yes."

"I am positive that Cook's horse had not been driven on the night of the 14th of May. It had been out on the night of the 15th; I could see the marks."

"On the night of the 14th Cook was looking for a house to put some furniture in."

Witness stated that lumber had got steadily cheaper since spring.

"Did the disappearance of Mr. Crawford cause a fall in prices?"

Witness answered "No."

ANTWERP'S CROWNING GLORY —HER FAMOUS CATHEDRAL

"A magnificent piece of Mechlin lace wrought in stone!" is what Napoleon is said to have called the great belfry of the Cathedral of Antwerp, which has towered unharmed through the centuries of siege, destruction and carnage which sadden Antwerp's history.

The cathedral is the noblest and greatest of all Gothic churches in Belgium. It was begun in 1352; its crowning glory, the solitary shaft of stone embroidery, was completed in 1692. Hidden in the intricate tracery of this pinnacle are perhaps the most melodious chimes in Europe—one hundred bellse, the smalest of which is only sixteen inches in circumference, while the largest weighs 16,000 pounds.

Aside from the beautiful late Gothic ornamentation of the bell tower, the Cathedral of Antwerp is remarkable for its unique interior, which is divided into seven aisles, and for the 125 graceful pillars which support the roof.

LOCAL MEN TAKE CONTROL CADILLAC INTEREST IN CITY

Well Known Hotel Man and Railway Contractor Go Into Auto Business.

TERRITORY WILL INCLUDE ALL NORTH OF RED DEER

Big Shipment of Latest 1915 Models is Now on the Way to Edmonton.

The Cadillac automobile interests in Edmonton and as far south as Red Deer and all the north country have been taken over by Nat Bell and P. B. Sullivan. The former proprietor of Pendennis hotel, has long been known to the business and travelling public of this country his experience gained catering to them will be a factor which will undoubtedly tend toward the success of the new concern. Mr. Bell also, during a number of years residence in California, had ample opportunity to observe the systems of automobile service in vogue there and these will be followed out to a certain extent by the new company with many improvements.

Mr. Sullivan, as the head of the large railroad contracting company of that name, operating throughout western Canada, has for many years been affiliated with big business enterprises. The new company, with such men of sound financial standing and business acumen behind it, will, no doubt, place the Cadillac business here on a new basis in which service to Cadillac owners, both new and old, will be one of the main features. This enterprise by such men indicates that business conditions here are brighter than some men think.

To Cover Large District.

The new company will be known as the Cadillac Motor Cars, limited, distributors for northern Alberta, and is a closed corporation. The arrangements have been under way for some time, but until the final completion of the merger last night the directors were loth to make any announcement.

One of the main endeavors of the new company will be to supply high class and efficient service to Cadillac owners, both new and old. To meet any and all requirements that may be made upon them in this matter a mechanical expert from the headquarters and factory at Detroit has been engaged, and motorists throughout the whole district of northern Alberta will in this way have prompt and expert service at their command. Owners of this make of car are exceedingly numerous throughout this district, probably outnumbering others make of high and medium priced cars two to one. Realizing the crying necessity of rendering prompt and high grade service to the owners of these, Messrs. Bell and Sullivan state that they are putting into operation a system of service that will be second to none in western Canada.

Shipment of New Models.

"The company will now on the way a carload of the latest 1915 model Cadillac cars, chief among which is the V-type, eight-cylinder car," says Mr. Sullivan. "The six-cylinder car, until a few months ago, marked an epoch in the way of automobile building which has now been surpassed by this latest achievement of the famous Detroit manufactory. These will be shown in the near future, offering to motor lover a new and matchless machine, the last word in American car development."

Pending the taking over of a central and large garage, which will be done in the next few days, and of which announcement will be made later, headquarters will be at the Pendennis hotel, where the 1915 literature is now ready for distribution.

"Service, efficient, prompt and high class to all Cadillac owners will be our main endeavor," said Mr. Bell last night. "And within the next few weeks Cadillac owners will be receiving this from us. Our territory extends from Red Deer to Edmonton and all the country north. As you probably know, the Cadillac is in extensive at Grouard and many other northern points."

MANY VILLAGES NEAR LILLE ARE SHELLED BY BOTH ALLIES AND ENEMY

London, Oct. 22. (5:50 a.m.)—The correspondent of the Times at Boulogne under date of Wednesday describes the desperate fighting of the last week in which the Germans have been driven back from village to village to the outskirts of Lille. He says:

"The destruction has been terrible. Some of the villages have been shelled by both the allies and the Germans and many non-combatants have been killed. A whole family was found dead in one house. In one of the villages 500 dead Germans were found after the fighting.

"During some of the attacks the allies had only time to make some rough trenches a couple of feet deep and were obliged to lie in them at full length. They gained much ground but are now coming in touch with the German position at Lille and are digging themselves in to hold their ground so necessary reinforcements can reach them."

London and Paris Both Claim Battle on Coast is Going Against Germans

Berlin Not Heard From—British Ships Take Important Part in Fight —No Confirmation of Evacuation of Ostend—Many Prisoners Being Taken to Warsaw by Russians—Stated Another War Appropriation of $375,000,000 to Be Asked by Kaiser.

Northern France and the coast of Belgium still are the fields where the most important fighting in the western arena of the war continues with the utmost stubbornness, but, as yet, without decisive result. The French war offices announces that the allied lines are holding in spite of the furious onslaughts of the enemy, while news despatches from London assert that developments generally are against the invaders.

Berlin, however, has not been heard from on this subject since yesterday.

British warships have played an important part in these operations and there are indications that their activities are not at an end. The fighting is going on night and day and the allies are said to be approaching close to the German positions before Lille.

No confirmation of the reported evacuation of Ostend has been received. The German garrison at Antwerp is said to have been reduced and a German column of reinforcements with two of the famous 42-centimetre guns is reported as having passed through Antwerp on its way to Bruges.

Outside of Belgium the fields of battle are numerous—Picardy, Champagne, the Argonne, the Woevre, Lorraine, the Vosges and Alsace in several of which districts the French claim officially to have repulsed the German attack, which they describe as not so severe in the Belgian field. The French say also that they have made progress in the Argonne and the Woevre territory.

A house sheltering the headquarters of the German staff. At Slype, on the Belgian coast, has been destroyed by shell fire from British warships.

In the eastern arena of the war both sides claim progress but not in the same localities. Paris says officially that the Russian army in the vicinity of Warsaw has driven the enemy back eight miles and the Petrograd war office declares that Russian troops have saved Warsaw from a German bombardment. There has been hand to hand fighting in the vicinity of Blonie and Prouschkeff, in Russian Poland.

The fighting south of Przemysl, according to this same authority, has been going on for six days with heavy losses on the part of the Austrians.

A News despatch from Warsaw says numerous parties of German prisoners, one of which included a German general, are constantly being brought into that city. One official statement given out in Vienna says that Austrian forces have gained ground at several points in Galicia and that the Russian counter attacks have not been successful.

Austrian troops have captured the heights north of Nizankowice and they have taken possession also of the last pass held by the Russians in the Carpathians. There are now no Russians in Hungary, according to the Vienna statement.

The German government has summoned the Reichstag to convene early in December to discuss the war situation, and according to advices from Berlin, the Prussian diet is in session today and will authorize a loan of $375,000,000.

The Krupp works are said to be reconstructing for the use of the German army some 500 pieces of artillery captured by the Germans from their enemies.

The native chief of Kamerun, the German colony in German equatorial Africa, has been executed because he attmpted to lead the natives in a rebellious movement against th German authorities. This news come to Londen from the Hague.

A news despatch from Oporto, Portugal, says telegraphic and telephonic communication with Lisbon has been interrupted.

A despatch from Tokio says a Japanese squadron is seeking German warships in the neighborhood of Hawaii, and that the German governor of Jaluit island in the Pacific is on his way back to Germany.

GERMAN SCHEDULE IN EAST IS BEHIND STATES DOCUMENT

Teutons Expected to Be at Warsaw October 15 or 17 —Not There Yet.

MANY VILLAGES TAKEN AND RETAKEN IN BATTLE

etrograd, Oct. 23.—The official news bureau, in a statement reviewing the fighting around Warsaw, says:

"The Russian troops displayed exceptional energy in coming to the defence of Warsaw and saving the city from a German bombardment. The Russian occncentration was effected with greater swiftness than was called for by strategical reasons.

"Documents taken from the prisoners who were captured during the fighting near Warsaw show that the Germans were confident of entering that city between the 15th and 17th of October.

"The Siberian regiments arriving at Warsaw were immediately sent to the front but not before they were warmly hailed by the population which was greatly impressed by the martial appearance of these young soldiers. During their bayonet charges at night in the forest of Motchid Lovak, the Siberian soldiers took many prisoners belonging to the 21st German corps.

"The 17th German corps and some of their reserve troops, who attempted to push forward in the region of Bolnie and Prouschkoff, suffered severely. It was there that the Siberian troops, together with other Russian forces, inflicted terrible losses on the enemy.

"Many villages in the vicinity were taken and retaken in hand to hand fighting.

"In the engagements near Kozienica, the Caucasian regiments also gave proof of extraordinary courage. For eight days the regiments were fighting on the left bank of the Vistula, in the marches where the trenches were constantly under water. Here they sustained the fire of the enemy's heavy artillery but all the German attacks were repulsed.

"Several regiments suffered severe losses and one regiment had three commanders seriously wounded, one after the other.

"The direction of the great battle going on to the south of Przemysl which has been under way for six years is in the hands of General Broussiloff. The Austrian losses have been enormous. Many prisoners have been taken, including both Austrians and Germans."

Red Cross Due Saturday.

Washington, Oct. 22.—The steamer Red Cross, which carried the main relie fexpedition of the American red cross to Europe, is due back at New York Saturday according to a wireless today to the society's headquarters here from Rear-Admiral Ward, commander of the vessel. Since leaving this country the ship has landed nurses and medical supplies at Bordeaux, Fal-

UNITED STATES IS PROTESTING ABOUT SEIZURE OIL SHIP

Vessel Held at Halifax—Said That Transfer of Register Not Bona Fide.

STEAMER ROCKEFELLER ALSO HAD OIL CARGO

Not Certain About Status of Oil as Regards Contraband of War.

Halifax, Oct. 22.—Service of a writ from the admiralty court against the steamer Brindilla was expected today. The Brindilla, owned by the Standard Oil company, was seized by the British auxiliary cruiser, Caronia, and brought here a few days ago. The writ claims the transfer of the steamer from German to American registry was not bona fide and that the ownership of the Brindilla is still German. The owners are given seven days in which to file a defence. It is understood that after the sheriff has placed officers on board the steamer, the crew will be sent back to New York.

Washington, Oct. 22.—Acting Secretary Lansing announced today that the United States had protested to Great Britain against the seizure of the American steamer Brindilla now at Halifax, N.S., as unjustifiable and demanding her immediate release.

Secretary Lansing said the American protest, made through Ambasador Page, was similar to that lodged yesterday against the seizure of the John D. Rockefeller, bound from Philadelphia to Copenhagen. He said the Brindilla also was plying between neutral ports—New York and Alexandria, Egypt—and he was satisfied that even though had there been a change of registry from German to American, the ownership was continuously American.

The cargoes of both the Rockefeller and the Brindilla contained illuminating oil, which has not been specifically declared contraband in any list sent to the state department by Great Britain, although officials here believe Great Britain regards that oil as contraband.

It is the British contention that illuminating oil can be used for propelling Zeppelins, submarines and torpedo boats.

The viewpoint of the United States is that this would be a matter for England and Denmark to adjust, especially since an embargo on the exportation of petroleum has been declared by Denmark, acording to the understanding of state department officials.

Treason Trial Starts

Montreal, Oct. 22.—The taking of evidence in the case of Israel Shafer, charged with high treason in an alleged attempt to aid Austrian reservists to leave Canada for their homes, began before Judge Leet this morning. The Austrians alleged to have been aided by Shafer were identified and the police captain who made the arrest told of his discovery of the reservists. Shafer, it is alleged, told the Austrians to represent themselves as Roumanians.

ONLY COMPLAINT IS THAT TOO MANY OFFER FOR ARMY

Canada Will Quickly Supply Second Contingent and Be Ready for Third.

ttawa Oct. 22.—The enlistment of the second Canadian contingent for service overseas is marked by strong complaints from the various divisional areas and military districts. These complaints however are in their nature gratifying for they refer to the small numbers which each military are called upon to supply. From all points come protests to the effect that in cases over double the number allotted to districts have already offered themselves.

It is significant that the department has not reduced the standard of physique and fitness laid down for the first contingent. The men of the second will be as fine a lot as those of the first and when the second has been raised according to present indications there will be a continuous supply of splendid material for the third draft.

The 15000 men now being recruited are merely the infantry branch of the second division. When instructions have been received from the war office it will possible to allot cavalry and other units necessary. The department considers that first class cavalry capable of giving a fine account of itself before the Uhlans can be trained in the west in less than three months.

German Papers at Chicago.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—The first instalment of German newspapers and official bulletins which Burgomaster Wermuth, of Berlin, promised to send Mayor of Harrison arrived here today. They were sent to the public library for the benefit of those who may wish to study the German viewpoint.

JAPS ATTACK TSING TAU AND WATCH WARSHIPS OF ENEMY AROUND HAWAII

New York Oct. 22.—The East and West News bureau gives out this afternoon a cable message from Tokio dated today as follows:

"The Japanese naval general staff announces that the marine heavy artillery corps is engaged on the 22nd (today) in the attack upon Tsing Tau and that a part of the Japanese fleet is keeping watch on the enemy's warships hovering about Hawaii."

FRENCH DRIVE GERMANS BACK WITH GREAT LOSS ON THE EASTERN WING

On the battle front, via Paris, Oct. 21.—11.56 p.m.)—Much progress has been made recently by the French on their eastern wing, where the positions are of the greatest importance for the future campaign. Fighting goes on there night and day.

Three battalions of German infantry, in trying to force a passage through the Nouyer, encountered strong detachments of French engineers and artillery, which had taken up positions during the night. The Germans de? ployed in order to surround the French, but the French trenchers opened fire and did terrific execution, finally causing what remained of the German force to retreat.

There has also been furious fighting at Roye, where the French recently sustained at least a dozen German charges. They finally compeled the Germans to retire with great losses.

LEGISLATURE ADJOURNS AFTER PASSING NUMBER OF IMPORTANT BILLS

At 3:30 in the afternoon, the second session of the third legislature of Alberta came to an end. The session lasted 15 days, the shortest yet, but a great deal of important legislation was put through.

British Navy Co-operating With the French Artillery

London, Oct. 22. (6:30 a.m.)—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Daily Chronicle, in a despatch dated Wednesday concerning the fighting on the Belgian coast, says:

"For three days British warships have been bombarding the German troops who are trying to reach Nieuport. With the co-operation of the French artillery the Germans were driven back on Middlekerke where the invaders are entrenched.

"The Germans today bombarded Nieuport from Mariakerke, their attack being vigorously replied to by the allies, and the warships. The battle is not yet decided. Many villages have been shattered and are in flames."

GERMANS TAKE SEVEN PROVINCES OF RUSSIAN POLAND, BUT RETREAT

Petrograd, Oct. 22.—Since she turned her atention to the Russian front, Germany has occupied five provinces of Poland and parts of two others, out of the ten which constitute Russian Poland. The area occupied, however, is less than would appear from this statement, owing to the irregular size of the provinces.

Poland has an area of about 50,000 square miles. The Germans at one time were in occupation of about 25,000 square miles, including their incursion into Suwalki. This area has been greatly reduced and is lessening every day.

TWO KILLED AND SEVERAL WOUNDED

Posse of Canadian and American Officials Fight With Five Outlaws.

MAY BE BANK ROBBERS

First National, at Sedro-Woolley, Wash., Touched Saturday for $30,000.

Blaine, Wash., Oct. 22.—Two men were killed and several wounded today in a fight between a posse of Canadian and American deputy sheriffs, customs officers and immigration inspectors and five outlaws, supposed to have robbed the First National Bank of Sedro Woolley, Washington, of $30,000 last Saturday. The robbers killed a boy while firing on citizens on the street before the bank.

Vancouver, B.C., Oct. 22.—A telephone message from Blaine this morning says that Clifford Adams, customs officer in the Canadian service, was shot and killed, and another officer was wounded by robbers, who broke into a bank at Sedro Welley, Washington, on Saturday night, and later escaped. One of the robbers also was wounded.

Adams was 22 years old and a Westminster boy. He was son of George Adams, retired business man. Apparently the robbers had tried to cross the boundary into British Columbia when they ran foul of customs officials.

AUSTRIAN OFFICIAL STATEMENT CLAIMS GAINS OVER RUSSIA

"There is Now No Enemy Left on Hungarian Soil," is Announcement.

London, Oct. 22. (10:30 a.m.)—An official statement given out at noon Wednesday at the Austrian general headquarters, regarding the fighting in Galicia, contained in a despatch to Reuters from Vienna. It says:

"We have gained ground in several spots in a highly stubborn attack on the fortified positions of the enemy from Plotzian to the high road east of Medyka, while the Russian counter attack could nowhere penetrate.

"Last night our troops captured the heights north of Nizankowice which followed the capture of the villages located against the heights. In the southern wing the main battle was fought by artillery. The modern field fortification system being liberally applied, the battle takes greatly the character of a fortress war.

"Yesterday we captured in the Carpathians, the Jab Lonki pass, the last point held there by the Russians. There is now no enemy left on Hungarian soil.

"In Bukowina we advanced as far as Great Zeroth."

Paris, Oct. 22.—(2.25 p.m.)—The official announcement issued this afternoon by the French war office says that the positions occupied by the allies in Belgium and northern France have been maintained in spite of the violent attacks of the enemy.

Allies Expect To Be In Brussels Inside of a Month

London, Oct. 22.—One of those who make up the allied armies in the fighting zone in the north of the Belgian border is quoted as having said yesterday:

"We shall most certainly be in Brussels under a month. I myself, expect it in a fortnight."

This probably represents the impression obtaining here, even though in the mass of vague assertions regarding the progress of the fighting on the vast line from the North sea to the Rhine, there is to be found little proof of any success to decisive as to constitute a victory or defeat.

Meantime the anticipation of a German evacuation of the Belgian coast under pressure is still unrealized, though if the British fleet is able for a little time longer to maintain undisturbed its present point of vantage, it can assuredly reorder the few miles immediately abutting the sea untenable.

Whether the network of canals in this part of Belgium will enable the monitors to carry their successes further inland has not been determined.

Maxim of Napoleon Not to Attack in Center When Turn is Possible Being Followed

Official Despatches Tell Just Enough to Make Public Hunger for More—Germans Apparently Making Last Supreme Effort to Dislodge Armies of Allies and British Squadron.

Paris, Oct. 22.—The latest despatch from the battle front in France and Belgium told just enough to make the public eager for more. The allies' positions everywhere have been maintained against the onslaughts of the enemy. Today's official statement of the war office was the object of hope on the part of the French.

Meanwhile, the fighting forces, before resuming the contest, sought anew to discover the weak spot in the lines of one another.

The maxim of Napoleon's memorable war: "Do not attack in the front the positions you can obtain by turning," is apparently a manouver to which the Germans are adhering in what appears to be superb efforts. In the battle, allies' armies, supported by an English squadron, have thus far successfully withstood repeated and fierce attacks of the enemy.

The fields of battle in Belgium, Flanders, Picardy, Champagne, Argonne, Lorraine, Vosges and as far as Alsace continue to be the scenes of combats where the allies have made gains, but a decisive result is yet awaited.

BUST OF FAMOUS LORD NELSON IS GIVEN PROVINCE

Rev. Alfred Hall, Commissioner Strathcona Fund, Makes Presentation

A bust of Admiral Nelson, made of copper taken from the flagship of the famous naval warrior, "The Victory," was presented to the Alberta legislature Wednesday afternoon by Rev. Alfred Hall, chaplain of the British and Foreign Sailors' society, who is in the city in conection with the presentation of Nelson shields to Edmonton schools.

The bust is mounted on a pedestal of real oak from the Victory, the pedestal being a miniature of the base of the Nelson monument in Trafalgar square, London, with a landser on guard at each point of the compass.

Mr. Hall also presented to the speaker of the house, C. W. Fisher, a beautiful salver made of Victory copper, suitably inscribed. The presentation was an exceptionally popular one with the members of the house on both sides.

Hon. J. R. Boyle, minister of education, at Mr. Hall's invitation, placed in the pedestal, under the bust, a list of the schools in the province which have received Nelson shields from the Strathcona fund, of which Mr. Hall is commissioner.

Fires in Borneo.

London, Oct. 22.—(3:25 a.m.)—A Reuter despatch from Batavia, Java, says enormous fires are devastating the whole region of western Borneo. Dense smoke clouds are obstructing navigation on the route from Java to Singapore, the light house being invisible. The Java, China and Japan liner Zimahi, the despatch adds is some days overdue and it is feared she has been wrecked on a bank in the straits in consequence of the smoke.

AMERICAN OIL VESSEL CONDEMNED AS PRIZE OF WAR BY DOMINION

Halifax, Oct. 22.—The first step was taken last night in the legal proceedings against the American Oil tank steamship, Brindilla, when a writ was issued calling for her condemnation as a prize of war. The document was prepared by W. A. Henry, K.C., acting under instructions from Ottawa and was handed in to be served today. This will be done by affixing the writ to the mast or some other prominent part of the ship.

The writ is issued on the ground that the owners of the Brindilla contravened the provisions of article 56 of the declaration of London, and that her transfer by Germany to an American registry, after war had been declared is invalid. Great Britain, Russia and France have by proclamation adopted the declaration as law, and the contention under the writ is that the ship should be condemned because of its provisions.

PORTUGUESE ROYALISTS ATTEMPT TO PREVENT NATION JOINING ALLIES

London, Oct. 22—(6:10 a.m.)—The Havas correspondent at Oporto, Portugal ,has sent the following despatch:

"Telegraphic and telephonic communication with Lisbon has ben cut. A number of unexploded bombs have been found on the railways."

A revolutionary outbreak in Portugal was reported yesterday. The outbreak occurred at Braganza and Mafra and was attributed to royalists whose object was said to have ben to prevent Portugal joining the allies. It was ofically announced from Lisbon that the uprising was promptly put down.

Schooner in Danger.

Astoria, Ore., Oct. 22.—The steam schooner, Rochelle, inward bound, was reported late last night as ashore on Clatzop Spit, off the Columbia river. She was burning red fire signals. Tugs started to her assistance, as did the government life savers.

WELCOME CHANGE MADE IN CAMP OF CANUCK SOLDIERS

General Alderson Announces Abolition of "Dry Canteen" of Colonel Hughes.

BEGINNING TO TUNE UP FOR THE REVIEW BY KING

Canadian Nurses Conspicuous Figures Around Westminster—Live in Hospital.

London, Oct. 22.—The fact that the Canadian expeditionary force is now under English command and will be accorded all the traditional rights and liberties of the old country Tommy was made clear by General Alderson's promise to the troops yesterday afternoon to abolish the dry canteen regulation which was in operation at Valcartier. Addressing the troops, after review at Bustard and South Down camp, General Alderson stated that certain difficulties had been overcome, with the result that within a few days the usual British canteens would be opened in the various camps. The prolonged cheers which greeted the announcement indicated it was a thing to make the new commander popular. While the efforts of the Canadian minister of militia to avert trouble by adopting a drastic temperance policy have been appreciated on many sides the fact cannot be ignored that the long period of enforced abstinence in camp at Valcartier, followed by a tedious sea voyage, tended to a good deal of reaction when the troops arrived in England, examples of which were painfully evident soon after landing. At present the village saloons on the outskirts of the camp are being guarded by pickets.

It is unofficially stated that on Sunday all leave will be cancelled for a fortnight for certain reasons, probably in order to tune up the troops for the review of His Majesty and Lord Kitchener.

The members of the Canadian force yesterday received more evidence of English hospitality when 61 residents in private houses at Salisbury offered the daily use of their baths for the troops.

The nurses who came over with the Canadian forces are being temporarily housed in St. Thomas hospital, opposite the house of commons, and are already conspicuous figures in the neighborhood of Westminster.

The greater part of the Canadian artillery yesterday made the journey from Plymouth Salisbury plain and by tonight the Canadian camps will be complete.

TURKEY IS TO ALL INTENTS GERMAN

Correspondent Says Grand Vizier Blindly Follows Orders From Berlin.

GERMAN COMMANDS FORTS

Country Has Between 500,000 and 700,000 Men Ready to Battle.

Milan, Oct. 22.—The special correspondent of Sfola in Constantinople telegraphs that to all intents Turkey has become a German colony, adding:

"The grand vizier blindly follows orders from Berlin, and has not the slightest notion what the morrow may bring forth for Turkey.

"Up to the present Turkey has nominally remained neutral, but she is actively preparing to break her neutrality whenever word may come from Berlin.

"Some 600 officers have arrived in Turkey since the commencement of the war and they have brought siege and field guns and ammunition with them.

"A German colonel, Weber Pasha, has taken over the command of the Dardanelles forts and bigger guns are being mounted in them.

"All the fortifications of the Bosphorus have been overhauled and a large number of mines laid down.

"The coast of Asia Minor, especially in and around Smyrna, have been fortified and to the north of Skyrna entrenchments have been completed to repel any possible attack by the land. It is computed that Turkey has from 500,000 to 700,000 men ready to take the field. German officers put the number at 800,000."

Boxer Killed in Fight.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—Jack Landgren, of Chicago, middleweight pugilist, was sought by the police today in connection with the death last night of Jack Lvendowski, who died two minutes after receiving a knockout blow at the start of the second round of a contest staged at Tolleston, near Gary, Indiana, last night.

AFTER CHASE OVER WHOLE CONTINENT FLOWER CAUGHT

WAS PRESIDENT WALL STREET MINNG CONCERN

Also Interested in Various Brick and Jewelry Manufacturing Schemes.

Toronto, Oct. 22.—Dr. C. C. Flower, formerly of New York, wanted for the past 14 years on a charge of grand larceny of $1,000,000 for having sold stock in wild cat mines in New York, was arrested here last night, as he was entering his home at 1542 King street west.

In 1900 Flower, who has passed under the aliases of Oxford and Montgomery, was president of the Arizona and Lone Pine Mining company, with offices at 33 Wall street, New York. It was shown that there was not even a prospect on the properties and Flower was indicted for grand larceny of $1,000,000. He was released on $50,000 bail, which he jumped, and for seven years Police Lieutenant McConville of New York, who was detailed on the case, pursued his man all over the North American continent and through several of the smaller South American republics. In 1907 Flower was located in Philadelphia as president of a brick company with a side scheme in which he was trying to interest Philadelphians, for making jewels. He was arrested, but was released. He then turned up in Reading, Pa., again engaged in the brick making business, and was again arrested, but secured his liberty after paying his creditors.

Lieutenant McConville then lost sight of his man until he was notified by the local Pinkerton agency that he was in Toronto.

It is expected that he will waive extradition.

Flower is about 70 years old and was living here with a woman who he claims is his wife. He is said to be a confirmed drug fiend, and the police found it necessary to allow him the use of his accustomed drug on the advice of his doctor.

Explosion Likely Accidental.

Montreal, Oct. 22.—Police investigation of the fatal explosion which occurred here Tuesday night in a tenement block occupied by Ruslans and supposedly caused by a bomb resulted last night in the belief that it was the result of an accident rather than an attempt to demolish the block and kill the occupants. It is thought the explosion was caused by dynamite stored in the basement.

By-Election Writs Issued.

Ottawa, Oct. 22.—Writs for by-elections in Quebec county and Champlain, made vacant by the resignation of Hon. L. P. Pelletier and the elevation of Hon. P. Blondin to the cabinet, will be issued today. No opposition is expected to the return of Hon. C. Casgrain for Quebec county and Hon. Pierre Blondin for Champlain.

SECOND LAST DAY OF SESSION SEES MUCH WORK DONE

Many Bills Advanced a Stage, But Lawmakers Had to Come Back Thursday.

RAILWAYS MUST BUILD LINES OR LOSE RIGHT

Fences and Taxes Take up Most of Time Given to Discussion by Members.

The legislature did not prorogue after all Wednesday, which had been scheduled as the likely day ever since the session started, as it was the last day on which private bills could be introduced. Although there were both morning and afternoon sittings, the work was by no means finished at six o'clock, and an adjournment was made to 10:30 Thursday.

Premier Sifton intimated, when questioned by George Hoadley, of Okotoks, that lines of railway which will not be started next year and whose time for so doing has expired, will have their charters cancelled. This was Mr. Hoadley was anxious about was that from Calgary to Macleod.

Railways Get Extensions.

Two amendments to the statutes were put through without opoition. One extends the time for the construction of several railways and the other prohibits the seizure or attachment of wages, salary or other sums payable or agreed to be paid by his ordinary or former employer to any person in the active military or naval service of the empire.

Dr. Ernest Blow and T. M. Tweedie, two of the Calgary members, took an opposite view of the taxation of subdivisions to that of farm lands, and thought that the former should be taxed on the assesed valuation. Hon. Charles Stewart and some of the other ministers, however, pointed out the objections, one of which was that it took practically the same amount of time and work to determine the value and levy a tax on a farm of 160 acres as on a lot 33 by 120 feet in extent.

Definitions of Fences.

Mr. Tweedie also took objection to a clause in an amendment to the statute law, giving power to municipalities to legally define a fence. The Calgary member and others thought it would lead to no end of trouble, but, according to the minister of municipal affairs, the municipalities themselves asked for it. Another reason for allowing the change was that conditions are so different in the various parts of the province that a sod fence in one part may not be considered as such in another.

The bill respecting the Central Canada railway was changed so that the branch must now go "to or through" Gerard, instead of "at or near," and so that the time limit is made two years instead of five.

Bills Pushed Through.

The following public bills received a third reading yesterday; No. 45, an act respecting circuses and travelling shows; No. 47, an act to amend the pool room act and amendments thereto; No. 33, an act to amend chapter 13 of the statutes of Alberta, 1908; No. 56, an act to amend chapter 20 of the consolidated ordinances, 1901, intitled the Companies act; No. 84, an act to amend the town act; No. 55, an act respecting the taxation of wild lands; No. 60, an act respecting transfers of executions and judgments; No. 64, an act to provide for the relief of Springbank Irrigation district; No. 35, an act to amend the village act; No. 52, an act to amend the school ordinance, the school assessment ordinance, the school grants act, and the truancy act; No. 62, an act to amend the education rate act; No. 43, an act to amend the rural municipalities act; No. 38, an act to amend the statute law; No. 50, an act to amend the liquor license ordinance; No. 39, an act respecting proceedings to secure payment and enforce rights under mortgages, encumbrances, and agreements for sale; No. 61, an act respecting the taxation of persons holding or operating timber limits.

The following private bills also received a third reading: No. 4, an act to incorporate the Athabasca Valley Railway company; No. 5, an act to empower Granger Collieries, Limited, to construct and operate a tramway, No. 8, an act respecting the Chestermere and Calgary Suburban Railway company; No. 9, an act to amend the act incorporating the Central Canada Railway company; and No. 16, an act to enable the town of Bassano to dispose of certain lands.

Native Chief Executed.

London, Oct. 22.—(2:15 p.m.)—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from the Hague says that Magna Bell, the native chief of the German Kamerun, has been executed because he attempted to foment among the natives a rebellion against Germany. The announcement is credited by the correspondent to Herr Bermayer, German governor of Kamerun.

Kamerun is a German colony of Western Equatorial Africa, with an area estimated at 191,000 square miles. It has a population estimated at 3,500,000, of whom less than one thousand are whites. The administration of the colony is by an imperial governor whose seat is at Buea.

Iron Walls of England Make Night as Day up and Down Channel—City Filled With Never-Ending Stream of Refugees—Aristocrats and Paupers Huddled Together in Fear of Demon War, All Wishing to Go to Free Isles Across the Way, Where Dreaded God Does Not Lurk—Wait For Something to Happen, They Know Not What.

On the French coast, Wednesday, Oct. 21.—Last night, under the cold gleam of the stars, with the channel searchlights flinging Olympian swords of flame athwart the heavens, and the huge lights on the Dover cliff blazing behind our navy joined in the tremendous battle that is still going on in the northwest corner of France. The picture of the lights leaping across the dead, black sea was enthralling, mysterious, wonderful. For some seconds the watcher was struck blind, just as after a vivid lighting flash. Then the sabre gleam would come again and again, searching the sea and sky. In one of these magic lantern peeps, the Calais boat, lumbering on late for the English coast, was picked out. Every detail of her leapt into vision. Behind, England withmyriad coast lights and wide-eyed sentinels; behind farther still, London, all dark and gloomy; here, on this drear coast, across the narrow strip of sea, the batterings and rumblings of war, untiring, sleepless, interminable. Only a few miles away, landward, the real thing was happening, and great fighting was going on, all as secret as the grave. This shrouding of everything, beyond the few nearere lines of the official communique, only emphasizes the immense importance of it all.

The city is in the occupation of the Belgian refugees, an apparently never-ending stream, climbing the steep streets of the town, wandering at will anywhere and everywhere and anyhow, sleeping under the stars, amid stable litter ,in byways, in filthy back streets, on steam boats in the basin, in the fishing boats in the harbor. In the anchorage, where hundreds and hundreds of fishing boats from all along the coast lie thick as their own packed fish after a great hauling, there is a living population almost equal to the population of the town at a normal time, whole families herding together in an intolerable atmosphere. Families in rags and taters, all their cherished household articles clustering and clattering around them; families well-to-do, fat, well-fed, with furs to warm them, jewels to decorate them, are living hob-nob with the very flotsam of humanity, a strange, extraordinary, most unbelievable sight.

They are waiting for something to happen, what it will be they do not exactly know. They are just living in a maze of dream, and cannot believe that what is going on is really true. Every day hundreds of them are marshalled off to the quay, where they wait in long, dreary, patient lines, rain or shine, tempest or torrent, for the English bound boats to carry them to that hospitable land, where there is room to spare for all, food and sympathy and no demon of war whirling at their heels.

BRITISH BOMBARDMENT UTTERLY DESTROYS TOWN HELD BY GERMAN FORCE

London, Oct. 22.—(8:50 a.m.)—A despatch to the Daily Mail from Dunkirk says that the British naval bombardment has utterly destroyed the town of Seyre, which the Germans held in force. The house occupied by the German headquarters staff was blown to bits.

The naval marksmanship, according to the despatch, was superb. A British signal man, in a stationary balloon, was shot by the Germans.

Hindus Go Back to East.

San Francisco, Oct. 22.—About 150 Hindus from Canada took passage today on the liners Tonyo Maru and Mongolia, for the far east. "We are going home because we have to," said one of them. "There is no more work for us in Canada. We are overwelcome in Canada anyway. We are leaving all our property behind us."

Big Casualty List.

Berlin, Oct. 22.—(Via The Hague and London, Oct. 22, 11:40 a.m.)—The German casualty list, issued today, contains the names of about 11,500 killed, wounded and missing.

BELGIAN POSTAL CLERKS STRIKE RATHER THAN GO TO WORK WITH GERMANS

London, Oct. 22.—The correspondent of the Daily Mail, who has returned from Brussels, gives new details of the life there. He says:

"A fortnight ago hundreds of Belgian postal clerks struck, declining to work longer with the Germans. On the same day all the post boxes were placarded with a German poster telling the people to call for their letters. Hundreds of Germans have been imported to take the place of the strikers.

"Around the grounds at the palace of Laeken, one of King Albert's summer residences, are occupied by troops, but the palace itself was occupied for only three days by the officers. During this occupancy however, much damage was done to the pictures in the palace. The officers had their dinners brought in from the hotel and paid for them with bank notes signed by a rubber stamp belonging to King Albert, which were taken from the king's desk."

The Campbell-Ottewell company quotes No. 1 wheat locally, 99; No. 2, 88, and No. 3, 86; ban, $22 pe ton; shorts, $24 per ton.

OPENS UP NOSTRILS, CLEARS HEAD, ENDS COLDS OR CATARRH AT ONCE

Instantly Relieves Swollen, Inflamed Nose, Head, Throat—You Breathe Freely — Dull Headache Goes — Nasty Discharge Stops.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm."

Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dulness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold-in-head catarhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membranes which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharge and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith — just once — in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

REGULATE YOUR BOWELS AND STOP COLDS, HEADACHES, SOUR STOMACH

What the Theater Press Agents Say

THI SACTRESS GOES OPPOSITE TO OTHERS.

Just a little wisp of womanliness and grace might be the description of Miss Violet Neitz, who is scoring a big hit in the comedy playlet, "A Strenuous Daisy," at Pantages theater this week. Although just out of her teens she has made an enviable name for herself on the Pacific coast as an actress. Her first venture was in motion picture work but she tired of the buzz of the camera and the surroundings and unlike others in the profession gave up the work for the stage—the reverse of what most actresses today are doing. Miss Neitz became known by a daring part she played while acting in a motion picture in California. It was at the time of the San Monica automobile road race. A local concern was making a picture in which an automobile scene played an important part. Five minutes before the race started the spectators were amused by a young girl rushing wildly into the judges' stand and begging them to delay the race for five minutes. The judges thought she was crazy, the crowd eager for excitement, smelled romance and a stranger forboding that somthing was going to happen.

Then it did. Before the guards could stop her she was on the track, jumped in the mechanician seat of Joe Mawson's high-powered racing car and then a rush and whirr followed by a cloud of dust. Three times she circled the course and then, as the car shot past the judges' stand ahead of the other machines which were pounding down behind them she rolled out of her seat to the side of the track. The car behind swerved to escape hitting her while all round held their breath. She got up smiling, yelled "hello" to a little spectacled man who was turning a crank of a little black box and melted out of sight. Then everyone knew the motion picture man was still reeling off feet after feet of film to be used later for the amusement of the "movie" mad public.

"Gee it was fun," she said "but mother had a fit. You know mother always travels with me. After all she is the best one to go around the country with. Some day I'm going to be a second Nellie Burke. She always was my favorite actress. My name is going to be up in electric lights before long," and she smiled at her own confidence.

Miss Neitz lives in Los Angles and she thinks there is no place quite like it. She likes Edmonton but she misses the orange trees and her own automobile. Around Los Angles she can be seen daily flitting round in a big touring car and now and then it breaks down and if you watch you will see the young lady climb gravely out of her seat, jump into a pair of overalls and crawls slowly under the car, for there is very little that can go wrong that she doesn't know about.

Miss Neitz has gained a host of friends among the Pantages patrons. The playlet is full of comedy and she gets everything out of the material possible. She is featured in the act with Jack Philips who played over this time before with the same sketch. His work is very clever and the couple work like one big machine. The supporting cast is excellent.

The Supreme Comedy Success

POLITICAL STORY FILMED AT EMPRESS.

The feature picture, "Reporter Jimmie Intervenes," that is being shown on the Empress program, is one of those films that has, perhaps, the biggest popularity of any picture subject.

It deals with a young reporter and how he gets evidence that a certain member of a city council has sold himself to the railway trust. The councilmans' stenogrspher betrays the politician to the young reporter, her sweetheart, and Jimmy enters the home of the councilman, learns the plans of the political group and then, through a method of his own, secures the written evidence of the bribe. There are many most stirring and interesting episodes and all effectively done.

The comedy offering is also a good one, and furnishes much merriment. The tell-tale name, "Innocent but Awkward," just about relates it all. It is perfectly natural for a woman to jump on a chair to escape a mouse, but decidedly awkward to sprain her wrist and fall into the arms of a male visitor. That is the nib of the funny story related and the situations are well done and riotously funny. But to make matters more awkward, her husband finds her in this embarrassing position, and how it tangles things and how then they are entangled, is cleverly related in the film.

A number of other pictures conclude the bill. Thursday is the last time these pictures will be shown.

FISH POND AGA.N AT BIJOU TONIGHT.

"The Fish Pond," the new novelty stunt of the Bijou, will again be presented Thursday night. Last week it was first introduced and the many prizes and the sport of fishing for the winning fish was greatly enjoyed by the large throng that filled the large Bijou auditorium. Some 40 prizes will be given away.

There is being shown at the Bijou for the last time in the city "Exiled," the master production of the life and history of the great French warrior, Napoleon. This also is the sequel to the thrilling picture that was the earlier portion of the week exhibited at the Bijou. As everyone knows, the life story of Napoleon runs as a work of fiction replete with the most stirring of adventure, battle scenes, romance, pathos and tragedy. This part of the work shows the Napoleon as the world knows him, the virulent, the aggressive conqueror. The closing scenes of the picture show the "warrior born" in the hands of the allies of Europe, shorn of his power but still possessed of the love of those who had fought under his banners and the respect of his most determined opponents. These scenes are most impressive and artistically done by the capable company interpreting the story.

The part of Napoleon is better assumed in this portion of the pictures than before.

SPECIAL EMPRESS MATINEE SATURDAY.

A special matinee for the children will be given at the Empress theater on Saturday and, for the occasion, the management has secured moving pictures of the greatest fairy story ever told, "Jack and the Beanstalk." This is a real feature and comes in two reels. There will also be on the same program other good pictures that will be just fine for the kiddies. These pictures will be for Saturday matinee only, and the price as usual will be 5 cents for the little ones.

TWINS BORN WHEN FATHER KILLED

DELINQUENT PARENTS AND BROKEN HOMES

(Contributed)

The home is the first and most important school of character. Here the child receives its best moral training or its worst. The home is the Gibralter of society. A nation of good homes and conscientious parents has in it the fundamental elements of greatness. A nation of broken homes and listless, indifferent parents is heading to decay. The armies of delinquent and dependent children are the spawn of bad homes and the thoughtless and sometimes sodden parents who have made them. The force of social hereditary, comprising the ideals, morals, religious impulses, teaching, discipline, order, personal habits, and superstitions of the parents overpower the child by its almost irresistible momentum. Profane parents have profane children. If the father lies the son will not be truthful. If the mother is immoral the daughter is not likely to fight temptation. A large proportion of the child's habits are formed before he is ten. Theodore Roosevelt truly: "If you are going to do anything permanent for the average man, you must begin with him before he is a man." During this time the one constant factor in his training is the environment of the home.

Good homes, as they are called in society parlance, are not always the best. Here the father is too much engrossed in money getting, and the mother is too busy with her social engagements to spend time in thinking of the children. Their care and training are left almost entirely to paid employees. Not infrequently the child of his upbringing rebels, deserts his unsuccessful home and winds up in the children's court. In his last annual report, R. B. Chadwick, superintendent of delinquent children for this province, calls attention to the large number of wayward boys and girls who come from homes that are luxurious but not always good. Men and women who sin against nature in their selfish determination to avoid the responsibilities of becoming parents, are only a shade more sinful than those who neglect the proper care of their "darlings" at home.

At the other end of the social ladder you will find the same kind of selfishness necessarily exhibiting itself in other directions. In many cases there is no effort to make the home attractive. Some parents think only of the day when the boy will go to work and enhance the family income. Little chaps that should be playing with their mother's apron strings are forced out into the street callings. Others are permitted to spend hours in the back alley with companions of questionable character. No questions are asked, provided there is no disturbance, and the parents' comfort is not molested. Whether rich or poor, these are delinquent parents, for whom society may yet have to provide penal institutions or reformatories. Since, however, it is hard to teach an old dog new tricks, the problem simply bristles with difficulty.

Men and women of the best intentions frequently spend more time in reforming other people's children than in training their own. The son of a religious teacher was arrested as a common pick-pocket. "Didn't you know that your boy was spending most of his time with a gang of thieves?" asked the court. "No, I am so busy with my teaching that I didn't have time to look after my boy," replied the father. It is easy to lose the treasure in your house by keeping your eyes on the ends of the earth.

More to be pitied than censured, however, are the parents of unfortunate circumstances. Compelled to live in an uninviting neighborhood, unable to provide sufficient housing accommodation for the proper care and moral training of their children, many parents are compelled to witness the sad results of a condition they are unable to remedy. Many a parent, finding poverty cutting into life at the point where it most hurts, on the side of wife or children, feels like a galley slave, and can almost see the horrid iron fetters as he tugs laboriously at the great oars of life. The bondage he can endure, but when he sees its pains and penalties visited upon his own flesh and blood, his agony beggars description.

These good, but unfortunate, parents have for neighbors the vicious sort. Many fathers are intemperate, some are brutal and beat other members of the household. The boys of such homes are apt to become rough, unruly, revengeful and cruel. Many run away from home and become Bohemians in habits and incorrigible in morals. The girls are early tempted to seek shelter and amusements in the purlieus of the city.

Many homes are broken by death. Orphan children are frequently left without adequate care. A much larger number of these than their proportion in the community are brought into court. In many cases the surviving parent marries again, but the step-parent cannot take the place of the deceased. St. Louis records show more cases of delinquency where the child lived with the surviving mother than with the father. Probably the control of the father is superior to that of the mother. On the other hand, widows are more numerous than widowers. Homes broken by dezertion and divorce are, fortunately, much fewer, but their presence is marked by a trail of ruined young life that brings a pang of pain to the sympathetic.

We sometimes hear the criticism that a too willing state in the profusion of its activities is breaking down parental obligation. In some cases of neglect and indifference it is the bounden duty of the state to take action. Our hope lies in the children. The home is the place for the child and the father and mother should be his best guardians. The home is bad, indeed, that is not better than the best public institution. It is the natural growing place of the young human being. But when the home becomes a brothel and the parents lapse into brutality, the state must give the child the best chance under the circumstances.

Social workers of today are not slow to recognize the unique importance of the home. Wherever possible the responsibility of the parents is enforced and the interference of the state limited to the insistence that the parents perform their obligations. They recognize that the breaking up of the home is a serious act and justifiable only under exceptional circumstances. They hold, however, that the state's rights are paramount and that if it's best interests can only be served by such action, then the breaking up of the home is not only expedient but necessary.

Wanted—Fathers, who would rather save their boys than make money. Mothers, who prefer making the home attractive for the children to decorating drawing rooms or entertaining society butterflies. A community spirit, that will insist upon an adequate housing accommodation and a fair chance for every family in its midst. Churches, that will preach with insistence the necessity of wholesome home life as the foundation of individual character and national greatness.

Multiply the good homes in the province and you will empty the juvenile courts, the detention homes and corrective institutions and give your probation officers a holiday.

EARLY OFFICIAL STATEMENT

Paris, Oct. 22.—An official statement says:

"On our left wing the German forces in considerable strength have continued their violent attacks, particularly in the vicinity of Dixmude, Warneton Armentieres, Radingham and La Bassee, but the positions occupied by the allies have been maintained.

"On the rest of the front the enemy has delivered only partial attacks. These have been all repulsed, particularly at Fricourt, to the east of Albert; on the plateau to the west of Craonne, in the region of Souain, in the Argonne district, at Four De Paris, southwest of Varennes; in the region of Malancourt; in the Woevre district in the direction of Champion and at a point southeast of St. Mihiel in the forest of Ailly.

"We have made progress in the Argonne district and in the southern part of the Woevre in the forest of Montmarte.

"Russia—Teh orward movement of the Russian forces has been announced previously. An important success in the region of Warsaw has driven back the enemy more than 13 kilometers (8 miles). The advances of the Russians at Ivangorod and to the south of Przemysl are equally perceptible."

American Ship Released

Washington, Oct. 22.—Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, the British ambassador, was informed today by the London foreign office that the American tank steamer John D. Rockefeller, seized by British cruisers had been released.

"WET" CANTEEN IS RECEIVED GLADLY

Canada's Soldiers Are Putting Finishing Touches on themselves at Salisbury.

London, Oct. 22.—A civilian who travelled down to the two Canadian camps of Bustard and West Down on Salisbury plains made a great hit by stocking his automobile with a goodly stock of latest available Canadian papers. The western contingent particularly was delighted to get their hands papers from towns all the way from Winnipeg to the coast.

"Write letters to the boys by all means," says this good samaritan. "You folks at home in Canada, but send them papers and as many as possible. You se a letter in most cases brings pleasure to the recipient only, but a newspaper is passed around men from the same district until it is well nigh thumbed to bits."

Yesterday by far the greater part of every Canadian brigade undertook route marching and away across the great palin a long indistinct line could be sen moving slowly. In half an hour or so the line becomes more distinct and the skirl of the pipes is heard, the sinuous moving mass resolving itself into the highland brigade marching in quarter column. Another ribbon-like formation advances from a second piont, and a third apepars from yet another quarter, for General Alderson ha sexpressed his desire to meet the division, or as many as can attend at such short notice.

"The parade is quite informal. They can come in any sort of uniform," he adde. Several thousand are too far away on route marches to attend but all the same in the mighty square of khaki clad humanity which awaits the new Canadian commander.

Princess Patricia's regiment, who are away from the general body of the contingent, have had a "wet" canteen ever since their arrival here. They also had a "wet" canteen at Levys, but Valcartier was "dry" throughout. Some of the men who did not like Valcartier and said hard things about it are modifying their views now that they have reached Salisbury and begin to appreciate that no matter where the camp is fixed there must be short comings. One thing in which Valcartier in a double sense shone over Salisbury was in being lighted with electricity. The water supply at Salisbury, it is said, is not up to that of Valcartier.

Leave starts today, as many as 20 per cent. of most battalions receiving three-day passes. Scotland in particular will receive many prodigal sons. Men proceeding to Scotland or Ireland have an extra day for travelling allowed them.

Lord Roberts is expected to visit the contingent tomorrow, Friday, and Lord Kitchener will inspect it later.

GOVERNMENT RELATES ATTITUDE REGARDING SHIPS IN SUEZ CANAL

London, Oct. 22—Through the official press bureau the government sets forth its attitude towards the ships of an enemy in the Suez canal. Some vessels, it states, were detained by the Egyptian government because of hostile acts committed in the canal and some because it was believed that they contemplated hostile acts. In a third class are placed the ships which refused to have though free passage was offered, 'thus disclosing an intention to use the ports of the canal as a refuge—a measure not contemplated by the Suez canal convention."

As such action might block the use of the canal by other ships, it is contended, the "Egyptian government is fully justified in removing all the enemy's ships which have been long enough at canal ports to show clearly that they have no intention of departing in the ordinary way."

Will Not Accept.

Gloversville, N. Y., Oct. 22.—A committee representing the Glove Manufacturers association today voted unanimously not to accept the resolution adopted by the board of mediation giving the striking cutters an advance of 15 cents a dozen.

BOARD OF MEDIATION RECOMMENDS HIGHER SCHEDULE OF WAGES

Albany, N. Y., Oct. 22.—A flat increase of 15 cents a dozen in the schedule of prices for all kinds of glove cutting, the increase to be effective as soon as work is resumed and the advance to continue for a year is recommended by the state board of mediation and arbitration of the state department of labor in a report made today on its investigation into the strike of the glave cuters at Gloversville. The report also recommends that the matter of estimating or taxing of skins and irregularity in the hours of the cutters be corrected.

The strike began on August 21 and involved about 1,500 cutters which eventually resulted in the idleness of about 15,000 workers in all departments. The plan of settlement suggested today will be submitted to committees for both sides Friday.

GOVERNMENT FAILS TO ORDER BY-ELECTIONS IN TWO SEATS LONG VACANT

Ottawa, Oct. 22.—Writs for the by-elections in Champlain and Quebec county made necessary by the appointment to the cabinet of Hon. P. E. Flondin, as minister of inland revenue, and of Hon. T. Chase Casgrain, as postmaster general, were issued today after a ncn meeting of the cabinet.

Nomination day in both constituencies will be on November 7 and polling day on November 14.

No decision has been reached concerning the by-election in West Moreland and Jacques Cartier, though it was expected that all four would be held at once.

London, Oct. 22.—The admiralty announces the death from wounds of Lieut. Richard C. G. Foote, of the Royal Marines.

An Old, Family Cough Remedy, Home-Made

Easily Prepared—Costs Very Little, but is Prompt, Sure and Effective

By making this old-time cough syrup at home you not only save about $2, as compared with the ready-made kind, but you will also have a much more prompt and positive remedy in every way. It overcomes the usual coughs, throat and chest colds in 24 hours—relieves even whooping cough quickly—and is excellent, too, for bronchitis, bronchial asthma, hoarseness and spasmodic croup.

Get from any drug store 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth), pour it into a 16-ounce bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. Full directions with Pinex. Keeps perfectly and tastes good.

You can feel this take hold of a cough or cold in a way that means business. It quickly loosens the dry, hoarse or painful cough, and also heals the inflamed membrance. It also has a remarkable effect in overcoming the persistent loose cough by stopping the formation of phlegm in the throat and bronchial tubes.

The effect of pine on the membranes is known by almost every one. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, combined with guaiacol and other natural healing pine elements.

There are many worthless imitations of this famous mixture. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex," and do not accept anything else.

WHERE IS THE STATESMAN WHO WILL BRING THIS ABOUT?

Away up in the north-west corner of his kingdom King Albert and his brave little band of countrymen are fighting their heroic fight in the little postage stamp of their native land which has not already come under the hand of the invader. Meantime, hundreds of thousands of Belgiums are homeless refugees in Holland, France and Britain, and those who are not refugee are quite probably subjected to conditions even worse than those of the refugees.

The Belgians' fight makes up one of the most glorious chapters of history, and when the picture is given the perspective of time they will undoubtedly stand out as the most splendid people of all time. But the Belgian people, in their present emergency, are the victims of a flood of misery and woe which is as cruel as it is undeserved.

This war, unless the horoscope lies, is going to be a long war. It will be many weary months before these unfortunate expatriates will be permitted to return to their homes, and it will be many weary and heartbreaking years before they will be able to re-establish themselves in their old-time prosperity in the pretty little miniature homes that have been wrecked by the ruthless invader. Meantime there is on the Pacific coast a country where the apples bend the limb as prolifically as they do in Belgium, where the bees hum as pleasantly, and where there is an odor in every vagrant breeze of cedar and rose, to which it is only necessary to add the aroma of new mown hay to make it the arcady of the Belgian's dreams. Beyond, and on this side of the mountains lies a great, broad, fertile and—as the Belgians would view it—a tenantless land which sends up the call year after year for people to come over and possess it.

Why not the Belgians? Why should we not invite these brave and frugal and industrious people, who have proven their bravery and their devotion to their ideals of citizenship to come over here and find a sanctuary for their hopes and an outlet for their industry in Western Canada?

To ask them to live upon the charity of their neighbors and allies until the war is settled and to then return to scenes where every stone and every landmark would be a lifetime reminder of the pain and sorrow which has been thrust upon them is not the requittal which the performance of these brave people deserves. Bring them to Canada. Here is this great big, broad, free land, with new inspirations and new hopes, with a welcome which would make them citizens at once and in due course Canadians in their every endeavorment, they would have an opportunity to work out the happiness of which they are capable if only peaceful opportunity smiles and which they of all the peoples of the world most richly deserve. Bring King Albert along if he will come. He looks like the sterling character of man who would make a grand Albertan and who, through the tribute that democracy unfailingly pays to greatness, would quickly find a place in the public affairs of this dominion far more comfortable and more gratifying than that of wearing a crown. We have a score of Belgiums in this country unused, each of them an invitation which needs only to be properly construed.

Where is the statesman in this dominion who will bring this about?

THE BALL OF COTTON FALLACY.

Having a tremendous cotton crop which they do not know how to dispose of on account of the war, southern growers have launched a "buy-a-bale-of-cotton" campaign, asking every one in United States to buy a bale at 10 cents, and thus keep up the price.

While the campaign might have the effect of loading up the public with cotton above the market price, the theory that the market could be affected by placing the cotton in public hands shows a remarkable lack of perspicuity on the part of those who propose thus to relieve the situation.

Passing the cotton from growers to those who were not growers could not affect the price in any way, unless it was to make it less stable by adding the element of insecurity to market conditions. The market takes no count of whose hands the cotton or produce surplus of a country is in, or even of the country, except in figuring the aggregate. By dissipating the crop among millions of growers the volume would not be lessened, but the willingness to hold or the ability to recognize a reason for holding would probably be affected to the detriment of the market price of cotton.

If the United States agriculture department could, by judicious advertising, induce the public to use more cotton and could at the same time induce growers to grow less, the market price might be retained, or at least subsequently restored. But if every house in United States had a bale stowed away in the cellar the price would not be affected.

FOOTBALL BEHIND THE TRENCHES.

When recruiting commenced in Great Britain there were loud cries from various scolds against the continuance of the football program and depreciatory utterances regarding the youths who spent their afternoons in thousands attending the games at a time when their country was at war. Such frivolity, the boys were told, was not in keeping with the demeanor which the gravity of the situation called for, and they were testily advised to forget their football and hasten to the recruiting offices.

Now there are two hundred and fifty thousand British on the front, with more coming up every day, and—to the eternal discomfiture of the scolds who railed against the football players—the soldiers are playing football behind the trenches.

There is a bit of all right, as the Englishman would put it, about the men who can spend a holiday from the trenches playing football, just the same as he would spend a holiday from his work at home; but there is something wrong with the liver of a scold who imagines that the boys who play football are no good for anything else. The experience of history shows, on the contrary, that the boys who cannot play football, or whatever the national game at the time and place happens to be, are not much good for anything else. Leave it to Kitchener and he would probably accept proficiency in football as the equivalent of a couple of months' physical drill on the part of the man who was no athlete.

A WAR MINISTER OUTSIDE THE WAR DEPARTMENT.

Canada has a peculiar minister of war. At a time when the call is out for a second Canadian contingent and when the necessity of the empire is for more men at the front, Sam Hughes, instead of being busy with the recruiting, is in London upon some mission, the nature of which is not given out but which, no doubt, cannot be completely fulfilled without the assistance of a calcium luminosity and the aid of a moving-picture operator. Meantime, Mr. Borden, who has dispensed with the services of Mr. Nantel, Mr. Pelletier and other Bourrassaites, handles also the military department.

It took a war for Mr. Borden to discover that ability is not a matter of geography or even of political tangents. Quite possibly in the hope of bringing his cabinet up to a state of passable efficiency he has discovered that he can get along better with his war minister somewhere else than in the war department

OWES HER LIFE TO "FRUIT-A-TIVES"

Cured Both Stomach Trouble and Headaches

PALMERSTON, ONT., JUNE 20th, 1913.

"I really believe that I owe my life to "Fruit-a-tives". Ever since childhood, I have been under the care of physicians and have been paying doctor's bills. I was so sick and worn out that people on the street often asked me if I thought I could get along without help. The same old Stomach Trouble and distressing Headaches nearly drove me wild. Sometime ago, I got a box of "Fruit-a-tives" and the first box did me good. My husband was delighted and advised a continuation of their use.

Today, I am feeling fine, and a physician meeting me on the street, noticed my improved appearance and asked the reason. I replied, "I am taking Fruit-a-tives". He said, "Well, if Fruit-a-tives are making you look so well, go ahead and take them. They are doing more for you than I can".

MRS. H. S. WILLIAMS.

"Fruit-a-tives" are sold by all dealers at 50c. a box. 6 for $2.50, trial size 25c. or sent postpaid on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

BRITISH STEAMER TOWED BY CRUISER TO ESQUIMALT, B.C.

Lowther Range, Captured in Gulf of California, Has Coal Cargo on Board.

NO EXPLANATION GIVEN OF FUEL'S DESTINATION

Apparently Bound From Rockhampton, U.S.A., for Port Pierre, Australia.

Victoria, B.C., Oct. 22.—Suspected of having coal which might be destined for the enemy's ships, the British steamship, Lowther Range, with a prize crew in charge of her from a British cruiser was last night brought to Esquimalt harbor. The Lowther Range was seized by a cruiser in the Gulf of California and as Captain Cundey, master of the vessel, could not give a satisfactory explanation to the boarding officers regarding the destination of his fuel cargo, there was no alternative open to the commander of the cruiser but to place a prize crew aboard and dispatch her north to the British Columbia base. This is the first prize that has been brought to Esquimalt since the outbreak of the war. She is now swinging at a buoy in Esquimalt harbor and all those aboard are kept closely under guard by the armed naval force from the cruiser.

According to the latest maritime reports the Lowther Range was bound from Rockhampton, U.S.A., for Port Pierre, South Australia. She is reported sailing from Rockhampton August 6 by way of the straits of Magellan and the fact that she was located by the warship off the Gulf of California drawing, it said, considerably less water than the draft given by her papers upon clearing from the Atlantic port, immediately aroused the suspicions of the naval officers sent aboard the vessel from the cruiser to investigate.

After putting the prize crew on board the cruiser turned her over to a Canadian cruiser which headed the Lowther Range into port.

MANY AUSTRIAN AND GERMAN RESERVISTS DETAINED IN CANADA

Ottawa, Oct. 22.—There are 693 German and Austrian prisoners of war in Canada according to the latest reports that have been received by the government from the various places of detention throughout the country. About 400 of these are Austrians and the rest Germans. All of them are reservists who were arrested while endeavoring to make their way to Europe to fight against the allies.

More than double the number have been arrested since the war began, but many of them have become naturalized British subjects, and have been allowed their freedom.

The fact that there are more Austrian prisoners of war than German is due to the fact that many German reservists had been notified week before the outbreak of the war that they were wanted and had left Canada long before the formal declaration of hostilities.

The places of detention are Halifax, St. John, Montreal, Kingston, Toronto, Sault Ste. Marie, Winnipeg, Regina, Lethbridge, Nanaimo and Victoria.

OUR FRATERNAL SOCIETIES ARE AFFECTED BY NEW LAWS

A Suitable Topic for Teachers' Conventions.

In the bill amending the Insurance Act of the Province of Alberta, just passed during the present session, fraternal insurance societies operating in Alberta will be required to charge a rate of assessment at least equivalent to the Hunter table of rates on the insurance of their members.

The history of fraternal insurance shows that where capably managed it provides protection on an actuarial basis at the lowest possible cost, and yet it has been disappointing to the old members of societies that have persisted in paying unsound rates on an all-life basis for years, only to find that sooner or later the deficits created have to be made up by those who survive.

Among the fraternal societies licensed to do business in Alberta, whose insurance policies are on an actuarial basis, and who are not affected by this legislation is the Independent Order of Foresters. This order adopted sound rates for new business on January 1st, 1899, and has since adjusted all its old policies to the same standard of solvency. The I. O. F. is today providing the reserve necessary to maintain the solvency of its contracts on a co-operative cost basis, at a rate per thousand to its members that cannot be equalled by any other system of insurance.

There is no reason why co-operative cost insurance should not have the confidence of its members and the public, where the basic principle of insurance is understood and these orders enjoy the protection of sound rates.

The average cost of protecting the future earning power of our lives against the hazard of disability, old age and death for from one to five thousand dollars comes less at co-operative than at commercial cost.

Life insurance protection is regarded today by our leading public men as a necessity to the average man or woman, and every progressive country is adopting legislation which either by compulsion or persuasion is requiring the attention of its citizens to this subject.

On a matter so important, strange to say, our departments of education throughout the provinces have failed as yet to provide a course of instruction in the public schools, and as a consequence our young men and women leaving the public and high schools are uninformed as far as instruction is concerned as to one of the recognized necessities of life in modern society.

Our public school teachers as a rule are as much at sea on the subject as their pupils are. Although appreciating the economy of co-operative cost of education they know absolutely nothing of the efficiency and economy of life insurance where all element of profit or private gain is eliminated. Teachers' conventions throughout the provinces should include this question among the topics for discussion.—Adv.

English-speaking people in Dresden, Germany, are permitted to worship in their native tongue, but German officers familiar with our language stand by to see that no prayers for the success of British arms are offered up.

The Boys of Alberta Are Now Likely Near the Fighting Line

They will soon be in the thick of it and will give such a good account of themselves that every Albertan and every Canadian should watch them as closely as possible.

They are making history this minute. Any day the crucial battle of the greatest war of all time may be decided.

The easiest way to have a comprehensive idea of what is going on, besides reading the news despatches, is by the Daily Capital's war atlas, which has maps of all the countries concerned and of the districts where the battles are now going on, besides a veritable mine of information and pictures of the great holocaust, including the fleets and airships of the powers.

The subscription price of the Daily Capital, payable in advance, to city subscribers is $2.00 for six months or $4.00 a year delivered at your door; to country subscribers by mail $1.50 for six months or $3.00 per year.

For every six-months subscription received while the supply of atlases lasts we will give one atlas free.

One who is now a subscriber may get one of these atlases by forwarding the price for a renewal for six months after the date his present subscription is paid to.

Better still, if a subscriber whose subscription is paid induces a friend to subscribe for six months to the Daily Capital we will forward each an atlas free.

Society was out en masse yesterday afternoon, when many of the hostesses in the west end were receiving. The gorgeous day, without the inviting grate and cheery welcomes within, made calling altogether a delight, especially as at the present time it is an incident and not one of those everpresent duties. Every one has been really too much taken up with military relief work among the soldiers' families and Red Cross efforts to indulge in social frivolity. However, yesterday was an enjoyable reception. Today relief work continues with added zest.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kenwood, who have been spending their honeymoon in England, are expected home this week. The homeward voyage on the Ascania was of 14 days' duration. The necessity of sailing without lights was the cause of the delay. On their arrival in Canada they went directly to St. Thomas, Ont., to visit Mrs. Wooster for a short time.

For Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock is booked a meeting of all the I.O.D.E. visitors. Details of the work which will be administered from a committee of the Canadian patriotic fund will be discussed. It is hoped that the cheques from the local patriotic fund will be ready for distribution this week. This, of course, means taking a tremendous load from the shoulders of the Daughters of the Empire. To them has fallen the "herculean task," as Mrs Hyndman, regent of the Municipal Chapter, put it, of caring for the needy.

About 130 pupils of the technical school visited the parliament buildings on Wednesday while theh ouse was in session. Afterwards the pupils explored the building with the view of getting an idea as to how the province is governed.

GIRLS! BEAUTIFUL, CHARMING HAIR, NO DANDRUFF—25 CENT DANDERINE

Try this! Doubles beauty of your hair and stops it falling out.

Your hair becomes light, wavy, fluffy, abundant and apepars as soft, lustrous and beautiful as a young girl's after a "Danderine hair cleanse." Just try this—moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it thorugh your hair, taking one small strand at a time. This will cleanse the hair of dust, dirt and excessive oil and in just a few moments you have doubled the beauty of your hair.

Besides beautifying the hair at once, Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff; cleanses, purifies and invigorates the scalp, forever stopping itching and falling hair.

But what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use when you will actually see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but fresh new hair growing all over the scalp. If you care for pretty, soft hair and lots of it surely get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine from any druggist or toilet counter, and just try it.

Y.W.C.A. NOTES

The Y.W.C.A. class in physical culture, with Mrs. M. Pinlott in charge, opened last Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the Strathcona hostel with a number of very enthusiastic spectators among whom were Mrs. C. C. Sinclair, who had become interested in the work at Battle Creek, Michigan, and Rev. C. Carruthers rector of Holy Trinity.

These classes give wonderful assistance to children through the awkward period of rapid growth, when it is of the greatest importance that a correct carriage of the body should be learned and should become habitual. The exercise given so increase body control that forgetfulness of the body follows and freedom and grace are secured, and a fund of good health is laid up for the future—a very good investment indeed. Besides all the benefits obtained, the little folk have a morning of solid enjoyment in very pleasant surroundings. Any grown-ups feeling the need of rejuvenation would do well to look in upon this class next Saturday morning.

A ten-cent tea and sale of dolls' and babies' dainty ware will be held on December 9 in the parlors of Y.W.C.A. on 103rd street.

Health and Beauty Helps

BY MRS. MAE MARTYN.

Sue L.—I always recommend quinzoin to put vitality and luxuriance into anyone's hair. It will promptly remedy the dandruff and itching scalp; it costs little and you can prepare it at home. From your druggist get one ounce of quinzoin and one half pint of alcohol. Mix and add one half pint cold water. This makes enough tonic to last a long time. Apply to your scalp twice a week. This is fine to prevent falling of the hair and premature loss of color.

Daly—Don't worry about being too "plump" when there is such a simple easy way to reduce flesh without dieting or any strenuous exercise. Get four ounces of parmotis from your druggist and mix it in one and one half pints hot water. Take a tablespoonful before meals. This is harmless and inexpensive and I think you will find a beneficial change within a week.

Leonora—There is no virtue in an egg shampoo. The slimy animal matter clings to the strands and clogs the pores of the scalp. Try this simple shampoo: Get some canthrox from your druggist and dissolve a level teaspoonful in a cup of hot water. It leaves the scalp stimulated and cleaned, and the hair beautiful, soft and fluffy.

Polly—You do not need to send abroad for the new, perfect substitute for face powder. Make it yourself at home, by dissolving four ounces spurmax in one half pint hot water. This is the simplest, purest lotion for making the skin soft and naturally fair. It stays on closely, and gives a youthful freshness. When on it seems part of the skin and cannot be detected as can the old-style face powder.

Caroline—Yes if the tissues of your face are inclined to sag, beware or you will soon have wrinkles. Here is a good massage cream which tones and braces the tissues while also beautifying the complexion: Mix an ounce of almozoin (from your druggist) in one half pint cold water. Add two teaspoonfuls glycerine. Apply freely. At the first application you will feel the skin contract and you will soon get back the firm contour and a velvety skin. For a good blood-purifier see answer to Maurice.

Maurice—The skin eruptions of which you speak are caused by impure blood and you must eliminate the poisons from the system before you can hope to enjoy complete health. Into one half pint alcohol (whisky must not be used) pour one ounce kardene, then add one half cupful of sugar and hot water to make quart. Take one tablespoonful of this old fashioned blood cleanser and tonic before each meal. This is splendid for that weak, worn feeling and restores the vital organs to a healthy condition, and its timely use will save much serious sickness.

Panchovilla—Certainly eyes are harmed by bella dona, but this home-made tonic will clear and make them brilliant while it is strengthening and resting. Anyone can prepare it by dissolving an ounce of crystos (obtainable at any druggist's) in one half pint of clear water. Use eye cup or put a few drops in each eye at least once a day. Its broughtening effect is immediate.

Carried Valuable Cargo.

London, Oct. 22.—(9.30 a.m.)—It is learned in naval circles that the steamer, Troilee, which was sunk by the German cruiser, Emden, carried, among other things in her cargo, 700 tons of tin, valued at nearly a half million dollars. It was consigned from the Straits Settlements to London.

1914 GREATEST SEASON IN HISTORY OF PACING HORSES

World's Record for Contested Race Lowered by Directum to 1.58—R. H. Brett and Anna Bradford Also Slash Former Marks.

The season of 1914 goes down in history as the most wonderful one ever known so far as extreme speed at the pace is concerned. The way in which the "side-wheelers" have performed leaves all past years completely forgotten, and as a result the list of "World's Pacing Records" is worse shot to pieces than the forte about Liege. Here is a condensed list of the more important changes:

World's record for a contested race—Reduced to 1.50 by Directum I. Former record, 1.59, by Minor Heir, in 1910.

World's record for a stallion, "in the open"—Reduced to 1.58 by Directum I. Former record, 1.58½, by Minor Heir, in 1910.

World's record for a gelding—Reduced to 1.59¼ by Frank Bogash Jr. Former record, 1.59½, by Prince Alert.

World's race record for a gelding—Reduced to 1.59¼, by Frank Bogash Jr. Former record, 2.00¾, held jointly by Prince Alert (1901) and Bolivar (1906).

Worlds' record for a yearling filly—Reduced to 2.19½ by Rosie McGee. Former record, 2.20¼, by Present Queen, in 1911.

World's record for a 2-year-old gelding—Reduced to 2.09¾ by Richman. Former record, 2.11¼, by John Malcolm, in 1913.

Anna Bradford Sets Mark.

World's record for a 3-year-old—Reduced to 2.00¾ by Anna Bradford. Former record, 2.05, by William, in 1913.

WILL AMICABLY SETTLE MATTERS

Weeghman Says Peace in Baseball Will Be Arranged at Meeting.

Chicago, Oct. 22.—James A. Gilmore, president of the Federal league, and E. E. Gates, of Indianapolis, general counsel for the league, today postponed until tomorrow their departure for New York to attend the annual meeting of the organization on Friday.

Charles Weeghman, president of the Chicago club of the Federal league, was authority for the statement that all differences between organized baseball and the Federals would be amicably adjusted at the New York meeting.

"Organized basebal lis eager for peace," Weeghman said, "and our owners,: although determined to fight to a finish, would prefer some arrangement whereby club owners of the National, American and Federal leagues might operate in harmony."

Charles Thomas, president of the Cubs, today confirmed the report that certain Chicago business men whom he declined to name, have an option on the team.

"There are six of them; they are friends of mine and if they take the club, I will retain the presidency," said Thomas.

PLAYING CLASSY GAME C. IRGENS BEATS DR. YOUNG

Winner Makes Run of 25 Points—Three Cushion Game Tonight.

By playing pretty billiards last night Chris Irgens defeated Dr. Young in the straight rail tournament at the Empire, the score standing 150 to 89. Irgens played fine position throughout and made the highest run of the tournament up to date, on one occasion knocking down 25 points. Dr. Young seemed unable to get the ivories rolling properly and could not roll up large counts.

Tonight there will be a three cushion game between George Sharp and Dr. Young the first game in the play off of the tie in the recent challenge competition against Billy Ryle.

Last night's score:

Irgens, 150. High runs, 11-14-25.
Young, 89. High runs, 7-9.

Curlers Preparing.

Toronto, Oct. 22.—The annual meeting of the Ontario Curling association was held Tuesday at the Victoria club, with Vice-President McFadden occupying the chair in the absenec of President Brunton. Grouping for the coming season's play in the Ontario Tankard was agreed on.

The following officers were elected: Patron, H. R. H. the Duke of Connaught; honorary president, Hon. J. S. Hendrie, lieutenant-governor of Ontario; president, J. A. McFadden, Toronto Granites; first vice-president, Charles Turnbull, Galt; second vice-president, Thomas Thauburn, Brampton; chaplain, Rev. T. D. McCullough, Port Hope; secretary-treasurer, G. I. Pearcy.

SUPREME COURT DECIDES WINNER OF 1913 FUTURITY

Decides That Ben More, Winner of Race Was Ineligible—Had Been Trained in Territory Other Than That Specified—Decision of Justice Beck Up Held.

In the supreme court yesterday, judgment was given deciding the Edmonton running futurity of 1913, Mr. Justice Beck's decision awarding $950 to Walter Sporle being confirmed.

The race, which was run in 1913 was one for foals owned and foaled in Western Canada and trained in the same country. Sporle entered two colts and they finished second and third, Ben more, entered by J. C. Bremner winning the event.

Mr. Sporle protested the race on the ground that Ben More had been trained and raced in the United States but the exhibition association would not allow the protest. The complainant then went to court and was allowed damages. The case was appealed but the decision of yesterday disallowed the appeal.

COMMERCIALS AND THE STRATHCONAS TO PLAY OFF FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

The Strathcona high schol defeated the McDougall Commercials at the south side gym last night by the score of 18 to 8. This was the last game of the schedule and will necessitate a play off to decide the championship of the league.

Both teams finish the season with a record of five wins and one loss. Home and home games will be played to break the tie, one game to be played at the university next week, while the Commercials will decide upon the location for the second game.

The standing is as follows:

	W.	L.	P.C.
Strathcona High	5	1	.833
McDougall Com.	5	1	.833
Victoria High	2	4	.333
Technical School	0	6	.000

DIRECTUM AGAIN DEFEATS WILLIAM

Wins Second Match for Racing Title in Straight Heats.

Grand Rapids, Oct. 22.—Directum I, holder of the world's pacing record, scored his second victory over William here this afternoon in the third match within a month for the pacing supremacy of the world.

Directum won easily in two straight heats.

The best time was 2:01 1-4. His first victory over William during the series was at Columbus, Ohio, two weeks ago, when he established a world's record of 1:58. In their first meeting here four weeks ago, William won easily, taking three straight heats.

FARM FOR SALE—14 MILES N.E. OF Edmonton, city limits, 160 acres good farm land. 100 acres open. No sloughs. $20 per acre. Phone 1221. The Chubb Land Co., 18 Benson Blk. PNC 320 ACRES—70 BROKEN; 18 MILES from Edmonton, 5 miles to depot, 2 to school; good house and buildings; $20.00 acre; $1,000 cash, balance easy terms. B. Wilkinson, Ardrossan, Alta. P.N.P.R.

160 ACRES, clay loam, fenced, frame house, good well, stable, 26 acres under cultivation, $200 cash, $900 easy payments at 5 per cent; for particulars apply 11033 Kinistino avenue. P.N.R.

FARM FOR SALE AND RENT—WILL sell 160 acres, about 50 acres under cultivation, fair buildings, good well, all fenced, all steam plowed land; also rent the adjoining 160 acres with equal improvements, situated 60 miles east on main line of G.T.P. and only 2½ miles from town. Any person with a reasonable amount of cash will get a good chance to get a good home. Apply owner, 429 Oak ave. OAE-TF

SECTION 21-49-11-4—11 MILES FROM Innisfree on the C.N.R., and 18 miles from Viking on the Grand Trunk Pacific. The Lloydminster-Revelstoke line of the C.P.R. will give a town much nearer than either of these. This land is on the shore of Lake Alice, a deep and pretty body of water giving this property a mile of lake front. The lake cuts into the section, leaving 394 acres of the possible 640. The entire 394 acres lays in a body, is all fenced and cross-fenced, has 110 acres broken, no waste land, level, high and dry, no stones, one and one-half miles from school, and has a strong flow of water both summer and winter from a living spring. Price $14.50 per acre. An important consideration is the fact that it is possible to secure a homestead within five miles of this land, thus making it possible to prove up on 160 acres free of cost without occupying other than the farm above listew. MONSTER PARADE ON ANNIVERSARY TRAFALGAR DAY

Edmonton Turns Out in Force to See Military March on Streets.

Edmonton's monster demonstration on Wednesday night in honor of Trafalgar day, took the form of a mile long parade, in which practically all military organizations were represented. Marching down Jasper avenue from Fourth street and to McDougall church, the parade had a most stately appearance.

The procession was led by four of the city's policemen mounted on fine horses and behind them marched a detachment of police on foot. The 101st regiment was out 200 strong, and the Edmonton volunteers were in the line, among whom was one company of postmen in uniform. The Legion of Frontiersmen were well represented in the parade, and the boy scouts, about one hundred in number, brought up the rear and made a grand showing. Military music was supplied by the Citizens', Newsboys', and Pipers' bands.

Arriving in front of the church on First street, short speeches were made by Rev. Dr. W. L. Armstrong and Dr. D. G. McQueen, Hon. J. R. Boyle and Dr. H. M. Tory. The big crowd was in highly patriotic spirits and kept continually singing their old Tipperary favorite.

Montreal Private Dies.

London, Oct. 22.—Private William Hartley, of C company, First Royals, of Montreal, who died suddenly on the roadside on the way to camp on Monday, was buried yesterday with military honors. The coroner's jury found that death was due to asphyxiation. Private Hartley was orderly to Captain F. R. Hanson. The deceased leaves a widow and five children, who are cared for by Mrs. Hansen. The jurymen offered their fees towards their assistance.

EDMONTON IN BRIEF

The first dance of the season of the Sons and Daughters of Norway will be held Thursday evening in the Blue Moon tea room, corner of Howard and Rice. A supper will be served by the daughters. Everybody is welcome.

E. L. Richardson, Calgary, secretary of the Alberta Live Stock association, states that as the result of rough handling, there is a considerable loss in connection with the marketing of hogs. In some cases this loss amounts to $800 or $900 per car. This is a serious matter and the farmers are urged to see that proper care is exercised in shipping the animals in order that the trouble may be avoided.

A meeting will be held at the Blue Moon tea rooms on Friday at five o'clock for the purpose of reorganizing the Edmonton Skating club and the election of officers for the 1914-15 season. All persons interested in skating are cordially invited to be present. Plans will be laid before the meeting whereby the Edmonton Skating club shall have the exclusive privileges of the use of an excellent rink and cull house at a very reasonable fee.

A meeting of the local association of the boy scouts will be held on Thursday evening at 8 o'clock in the boys' department Y.M.C.A. All scout masters are particularly requested to attend as some very important business has to be taken up."

Mayor McNamara is in receipt of a letter from Mdlle. La Ferriere, 65 Rue D'Artigny, Quebec, in which she requests him to ask the newspapers to publish an announcement asking Pascol La Ferriere to communicate with his family.

FOR OBTAINING WAGON AND HORSES BY FRAUD SANDALUK SENT DOWN

For obtaining a team of horses and a wagon on false pretenses F. Sandaluk was sentenced to seven months imprisonment by Inspector Jennings of the mounted police on Wednesday afternoon.

Sandaluk went to the Great West Livery stable some time ago and intimated that they were desired to purchase a team of horses. He gave a fictitious name and stated that he was the owner of a large farm not far from the city. According to his story he had plenty of stock but owing to the hard times, was somewhat pressed for actual money. On the strength of his story he was given the team and in return gave them notes. Later it was discovered that he was a fraud and steps were taken to bring him to justice, but not until after he had worked the same game on an implement agency for a wagon.

The sentence given him was lenient as the temptation to err was strong owing to the somewhat loose business methods of the companies he had done business with.

According to Inspector Jenning the companies took Sandaluk's word at its face value, without making any attempt to verify the story told them. They did not ocnsult the Land Title's office in regard to the alleged ownership of the land, nor apparently taken precautions to guard against fraud.

MONTREAL MAN HELD BY GERMANS DURING WHOLE COURSE OF WAR

Montreal, Oct. 22.—That J. T. Armand, a Montreal mining broker, who is now held by the Germans as a prisoner of war at Baden, is not likely to be released till peace is declared between Britain and Germany, was the substance of a letter from Hon. Geo. Perley, acting high commissioner for Canada, read today at the monthly meeting of the chamber of commerce. Mr. Perley's letter contained the information that the German government had passed a regulation prohibiting any British subject between the ages of 18 and 55 from leaving Germany during the war.

Mr. Armand is a member of the chamber of comemrce, and was visiting relatives in Alsace when war was declared. He was first held as a spy and sentenced to be shot, but this sentence was commuted to imprisonment, through the intervention of the American consul.

Monitor Casualties.

London, Oct. 22.—The casualties of the monitors on the Belgian coast amount to 14, including two able seamen missing and one officer Lieut. Edward Selby-Wise of the Severn killed.

MARTIN WOOLF ON ALBERTA FARMING

Cardston Member and Turgeon of Ribstone Tell City Folks of Country.

A bumper house greeted J. G. Turgeon, M.P.P., for Ribstone, and Martin Woolf, M.P.P. for Cardston, the speakers at the noon luncheon of the Industrial association on Thursday.

Mr. Woolf, who was the first speaker, dealt with "The present status of agriculture in Alberta," and divided the people on the land into three classes. There were the farmers, the grain growers and the agriculturalists.

"The farmer," he said, "is the man who makes his money on the farm and blows it in the city. The agriculturalist is the man who makes his money in the city and blows it on the farm."

Mr. Woolf has lived in the extreme south of the province for 20 years and he cited cases where grain growers had come on the land from the states and more than paid for the land and the labor the first year. One man he knew paid $10 an acre for his farm. He paid a man $4 an acre for breaking it and $2 and acre for discing, making in all $16 an acre. The man had 320 acres broken that year, the yield was 35 bushels to the acre and the price was 80 cents per bushel. He believed the south of the province favored the grain grower but for the scarcity of water in some places.

"The basic industry of this whole country is agriculture," he said. "A country without people is a wilderness and people without land are a mob."

He favored the "back to the land" movement, but he thought all the assistance possible should be given those on the land to make it a success. "Train the people that are already on the land," he said, "and their children to be satisfied to stay on the land. This can only be accomplished by the united efforts of the entire province."

"Land tenure in Alberta" was the subject handled by J. G. Turgeon, member for Ribstone. Mr. Turgeon favored the government being entitled to a portion of the unearned increment of all lands in the province. The question was, what proportion? He referred to land tenure in the cities and also spoke in favor of a minimum wage for all working classes. Mr. Turgeon's address was very highly appreciated and the speaker brought out some very interesting points in giving his views on the subject.

POLICE COURT

When her case was called in the police court on Thursday morning, Ada Glover, colored, charged with robbing Joe McGee in a lane at the rear of First street, became hysterical and piteously implored the court for mercy, protesting her innocency. She was so overcome that she had to be aided from the room, and when taken away was wailing bitterly, bemoaning her hard fate.

Her companion, Georgia Thomas, held on the same charge and also for rolling John Rennie of $120, was more stolid and acted as though more accustomed to the procedure of police court. Both were remanded until Friday morning.

At the request of the counsel for the defendant, the police surrendered an opium pipe, which was seized in a raid on 44 Namayo avenue on Wednesday evening. The owner of the pipe, Tom Suey, is such a confirmed opium fiend that if the drug were suddenly cut off his life would be seriously endangered.

As the result of the raid in question, three Chinamen were gathered in, one of them being charged with keeping an opium joint, one with smoking and one with being a frequenter. Their cases were remanded for a week.

Arthur Thompson and L. Bessine, who appeared on Wednesday morning, charged with running a lottery, were convicted and fined $5 and costs apiece. The magistrate pointed out that the offense was a serious one but that as they apparently acted more in ignorance than anything else, he would be lenient.

For maltreating H. Simpson, a flower vendor, on Jasper avenue on Saturday afternoon, Walter Shea was fined $10 by Magistrate Massie. The affair occurred near the United Woolen mills store and during the scuffle a plate glass window was broken. Shea, heavily laden with papers, found his progress impeded by Simpson's stand and after setting rid of his load, remonstrated with its owner in a rather too forcible manner.

EDMONTON CANOE CLUB HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Edmonton Canoe club was held last evening in the offices of Hyndman, Milner and Matheson. There was the largest turnout that the club has ever had and a tremendous amount of business was attended to; a great deal of enthusiasm was exhibited, and questions of policy were dealt with in a highly satisfactory manner.

The election of officers for the ensuing year was, of course, the most important item on the evening's work and a little rivalry on the ticket showed conclusively the high estimation that every member attaches to any official position on the club. Among other matters settled was the policy of holding dances in the city throughout the winter months and thus doing away with the cold trip on the train. The following officers were elected:

Board of governors—Commodore, H. P. D. Trickey; vice-commodore, F. L. Bradburn; rear-commodore, E. B. Scott; hon. treasurer, H. B. Wilson; hon. secretary, C. L. Oliphant; A. S. Matheson, J. K. Macdonald, J. W. Duncan and W. G. Ballentine.
